DEFENDANT: JOSHUA DANIEL KAUPANG
CASE NUMBER: CR 20-2-GF-BMM-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Unless you receive prior written approval from the probation officer, you must not: knowingly reside in the home, residence, or be in the company of any child under the age of 18, [with the exception of your own children;] go to or loiter within 100 yards of school yards, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18.
2. You may own or possess only one device that has access to online services as approved by the probation officer. If that device is not a phone, you may also possess one mobile phone that has no online capability or camera. You must obtain the approval of the probation officer prior to using any device. You must not own, possess, or use any additional devices, whether or not the device has access to online services, without the prior written approval of the probation officer. You shall not own, possess, or use more than one data storage device or media, without the prior written approval of the probation officer. Your approved devices must be capable of being monitored and compatible with monitoring hardware, software, or other technology approved by the probation officer. You must allow the probation officer to make unannounced examinations of all devices, hardware, software, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from your computer, phone, tablet, or data storage device or media. You must allow the probation officer to install software to restrict or monitor your devices access. You must pay part or all of the cost of monitoring, as directed by the probation officer. You must not use any computer, phone, tablet, data storage device or media, to access sexually explicit materials as defined in these conditions nor to contact minors or gather information about a minor. You must not possess encryption or steganography software. You must provide records of all passwords, Internet service, and user identifications (both past and present) to the probation officer and immediately report changes. Immediately means within 6 hours. You must sign releases to allow the probation officer to access phone, wireless, Internet, and utility records.
3. You must not possess or use any computer or other device with access to any on-line computer service without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network. You must not have access to a modem during their term of supervision without the prior approval of the probation officer.
4. You must submit your person, and any property, residence, place of employment, vehicle, papers, [computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to which you have access,] to a search at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, with or without a warrant, by the probation officer, or by any law enforcement officers upon the express direction of the probation officer, with reasonable suspicion concerning your violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any other occupants, adults and minors that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. You must allow seizure of suspected contraband for further examination.
5. You must not possess camera phones or electronic devices that could be used for covert photography without the prior written approval of the probation officer.
6. You must not access the Internet except for reasons approved in advance by the probation officer.
7. You must apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other financial gains to outstanding court-ordered financial obligations.
8. You must provide the probation officer with any requested financial information. You must not incur new lines of credit without prior approval of the probation officer. You must notify the probation officer of any material changes in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay court-ordered financial obligations.
9. You must participate in a program for mental health treatment as approved by the probation officer. You must remain in the program until you are released by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment as directed by the probation officer.
10. You must submit to not more than six polygraph examinations per year as directed by the probation officer to assist in treatment, planning, and case monitoring. You maintain your Fifth Amendment rights during polygraph examinations and may refuse to answer any incriminating questions. You must pay part or all of the costs of these examinations as directed by the probation officer.
